Celebrating 100 Years -

Tamara Klovanish, BSN.RN

"As the Toastmaster 2023-2024 year comes to a close, I've been reflecting on my enriching experience as a member of RPTM and part of the leadership team. This year has taught me the importance of teamwork and the value of working with positive, dedicated professionals towards common goals of communication and leadership development.

Our success hinged on our ability to function as a cohesive unit, with each member striving for excellence. My dedication to Pathways, delivering speeches, and serving as SAA has been a highlight of my professional growth.

I have deeply appreciated the unconditional support and acceptance from my fellow Toastmasters, and I eagerly anticipate the future."

Tamara Klovanish, BSN, RN
